Judge Dogs - Mrs M Fox-Shone (Pamedna)

A very warm, friendly welcome awaited me at what is always a very well run show. Lovely atmosphere set in an idyllic part of the country and to boot a super entry of lovely dogs to judge. Thank you to everyone, exhibitors, Committee and my lovely stewards for making this a special weekend away and of course my companion Lesley. I loved my final line up and had a few very special dogs. My same remarks apply as earlier when I did bitches, the depth of quality generally is lacking at the moment and we need to work hard and take care of our lovely breed if we are to come through these lack lustre times. I feel we can and look forward to breeders continuing on with their enthusiasm for our breed and breeding exceptional, sound, typey dogs of all four colours for the future.

VETERAN DOG (3)

1 MACLAINE'S CH LOCHBUIE CAPPUCCINO

One of my favorite boys, now in his 9th year, a quality dog. Rich coloured ruby, excellent pigment, love his size, make and shape, handsome headpiece, such a sound dog and always moves true, although a little slower these days. He is every inch a Champion, a dog of lovely type and even more important, passing on his qualities to his children. Certainly a dog to be proud of. BEST VETERAN IN SHOW .

2 FRASER'S TINGEWOOD TAM O'SHANTER

Another lovely, quality ruby, good shape and nicely balanced. Lovely soft expression and moved well. Good for type. Shown in good condition.

He has a super shape, well balanced, good reach of neck and looks lovely in profile and on the move. Attractive head, handsome with dark eye and nice expression. Promising youngster who should mature well and have plenty of fun in the ring. A little naughty at times but charming with it.

2 SPALL & CLARK'S LLAPSTTAM'S SECRET SEVEN

Just 6 months, very much the baby here and giving a lot away. I liked his make and shape and he moved very well, small, beautifully balanced, and at one with his handler. Head still needs time but very correct for one so young. Lovely happy temperament, showed well.
